[Redacted]
This is in response to your letter of 31 August to me concerning your interest in being associated with this Agency.

I believe events have overtaken us as by this time you have no doubt heard from [Redacted] that we are not able to take advantage of your kind offer to be of service to us.

STAT

Best wishes and I hope you have success in finding a meaningful assignment during your husband's assignment overseas.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Magee

Mr. W. Scott Thompson
Associate Director (Programs)
United States Information Agency
Washington, D.C. 20547

Dear Mr. Thompson:

Thank you for your letter of 2 September 1983 concerning [redacted]

STAT

I agree from reading your letter that [redacted] appears to be a very talented administrative officer. Unfortunately, we have no overseas opening that would take advantage of her particular talents at this time or when she and her husband are posted overseas. Our professional personnel are generally trained in Headquarters for at least one year of formal and on-the-job training. They are then assigned to positions that may be available at that time--not necessarily restricted to locations requested by the employee.

STAT

Thank you for bringing [redacted] to our attention and I regret that we will not be able to offer her a position at this time.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Magee
